NBN DATA + VOICE BUNDLES

The Service:

We can deliver our service over the available deployed NBN infrastructure (either Fibre To The Home, Fibre to the Node (VDSL) and Fixed Wireless). Services that contain a monthly usage allowance will have the following speed restrictions applied when the allocated monthly data allowance is reached - 1024Kbps downstream and 512Kbps upstream. No additional charges are applicable to exceeding your monthly data allowance.

To assist you in managing your usage you can monitor your allowance via our customer portal. Notifications are sent to your selected e-mail address once you have consumed 50%, 85% and 100% of your allocated allowance.

All voice services are delivered as VoIP (Voice over IP) via your active Internet Service.

All Voice and Data services are bound by our fair use policy (<https://support.activeutilities.com.au/hc/en-us/articles/201368184-Voice-Data-Fair-Use-Policy>)

Bundling:

To Get Active Voice service you must have an Internet service provided by Active Utilities.

Mandatory Components:

In order to receive an NBN Data and Voice service your premises must registered as an active dwelling on the NBN Network. We will confirm this for you
